Overview and Technical Data:

MECOF - Dynamill 3000 Portal Milling Machine

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people in the public sector who are employed in the health sector has increased from 2.5 million to 3.5 million (Department of Health 2000).

There are a number of reasons why the public sector has become an important employer in the UK. One of the main reasons is that the public sector has become an important provider of social services, such as health care, education, and social housing. The public sector has also become an important provider of infrastructure, such as roads, bridges, and public transport. The public sector has also become an important provider of social services, such as health care, education, and social housing.
