The PLANOMAT HP combines reproducible precision and powerful speed with high flexibility – the ideal combination for efficient profile grinding. The robust, inherently stiff design with 3-point installation ensures the exactness of the modular PLANOMAT HP machines. A driving power combined with high-precision, digitized ball-type drives guarantees high infeed speeds and accelerations. High Table speeds reduce grinding times and increase productivity. Almost maintenance-free linear guideways and the highly efficient, lifetime-lubricated grinding spindles reduce the maintenance requirement to a minimum. Depending on the task, the PLANOMAT HP series offers six different working ranges: from 400 mm x 800 mm to 600 mm x 2000 mm. In addition, two different control concepts enable optimal adaptation to the respective grinding task. The EasyProfile control unit, an innovative BLOHM user interface on a Siemens platform with touch screen, optimally handles all routine workshop requirements, thanks to its intuitive operation. Modular system High quality components made from gray cast iron Thermal and vibration engineering characteristics optimized via finite element calculation Precision linear
